PRICE OF COALS ON THE PACIFIC .- From the following quotation from the Price Current of Valparaiso, at latest dates, it will be seen that coals are at an awful low rate there—almost as low as they are here. The last cargo, that of the Hudson, were sold a day or two since, in lots to suit purchasers, at $3 American gold. The arrivals during the month amount to 45,000 tons, which have been partly disposed of, be landed for second hand account for $5, for ch dollars, 5 to 51 English in the bay, and the same price has been accepted for the coast. Since the arrival of the steamer, two cargoes 84. Heavy arrivals are looked for .- Panama

THE NEW COSTUME. - At the anti-slavery convention at Syracuse, on Thursday, Mrs. Burleigh and the two Misses Burleigh, the wife and daughters of the poet Burleigh, entered the meeting. They were dressed in the new costume that is now being adopted by the ladies. The upper garment was close fitting and reached to the knees. Underneath was a loose trowsers reaching to the ancles. The feet were enclosed in buskins, and gypsey straw hats crowned all. directed towards the ladies. They walked leisurely through the aisle, took their seats upon Abby Kelly, George Thompson, and Wm. L and China. Garrison.—Bostom Times.

IMMIGRATION .- The Report of the Secretary on Foreign Immigration, for the year 1850, makes the number arrived in this country over $15,000. According to the rate at which it is now going on, the number for this year will exceed 400,000. The history of the world affords no example of such prodigious migration.

Mr. Madison, in writing to Alexander Hamilton, in July, 1788, when the question of a conditional ratification of the U. S. Constitution "The Constitution requires an adoption in toto and for ever." And, as such, it was adopted by the several States. Ample provision was made that new States might course into the Union of t was before the New York Convention, said-
